Petitions and requests from the floor

Lorretta Close had noticed the Village of Franklinville is producing electronic newsletters, and asked “Is this something the Town of Franklinville could be doing”? Ms. Close also asked if there will be changes to the concrete sidewalks out front. It had been brought up in meetings before. Mr. Weaver stated he had been talking to a few contractors and believes we need an engineer. This went into further discussion.

Highway Superintendent

Mr. McClory reported the department is working on cutting trees on Hillibrandt Rd. to get ready for next years capital project incase the town receives the funding for the project. On rainy days they are scraping and painting the equipment.

Mrs. Fisher stated the signs for Bryant Hill Rd. are ordered and to be sent to the highway dept.

Communications

The Holiday Celebration for employees and families was canceled due to Covid.

Mrs. Fisher stated that there is an issue with installing the dock correctly at Case lake due to a leak that lowered the water level. Cattaraugus County is looking for $10,000 to add a longer dock.

Mrs. Fisher asked for Jack Stafford if the cemetery will be closed for the winter due to the cost from the damage that takes place. If we do not close the cemetery then maybe, ask the village to plow the sidewalks. There was further discussion to where the Town Board is thinking about closing the Cemetery to reduce cost.

Mr. Weaver stated that three contractors were contacted concerning the sidewalks needing to be ADA compliant in front of the Town Hall. He said they are terribly busy getting their work done before winter and this may have to wait till spring.

Supervisor

Supervisor Breton stated the Sexual Harassment training needs to be completed and will be scheduled for a date in October.

Mrs. Fisher mentioned NYS supplies this for free.

Mr. Breton mentioned to Judge Holden that he has spoke with the attorney on the ORI number. Due to needing to meet certain code requirements he will have to do more research and continue to investigate the matter.
